靈氣 伝統

Hi Everyone,

Just for today, let us pause and remember that life is more than the tasks we complete or the challenges we face. Beneath the noise of the world lies a quiet stillness, a place within each of us where peace, wisdom, and compassion reside. When we take a moment to reconnect with that stillness, we begin to remember what truly matters.

The changing seasons remind us that growth is often unseen. Like a seed beneath the earth, transformation takes place quietly, nurtured by patience, trust, and time. Even when life feels uncertain, every experience offers an opportunity for greater understanding and deeper connection.

In Reiki, we are reminded that healing begins with presence. By returning our awareness to the present moment, we open ourselves to the gentle flow of life energy and rediscover balance and harmony. Just for today, let us release unnecessary worry, embrace gratitude for the blessings around us, and extend kindness to ourselves and others.

As we share this month's news and updates, may these pages serve as a reminder of the wonderful community we are blessed to be part of. Together, through compassion, learning, and mutual support, we continue to grow and inspire one another on our individual journeys.

May this month bring you peace in your heart, clarity in your mind, and joy in your spirit. May your path be guided by gratitude, wisdom, and love.

LINEAGE TRACING SYSTEM

Brought to you by Reiki Tradition, School of Reiki

Feature by

Martin R Thirlwell

10th Generation Reiki Master

Around July 2016 I was inspired to create a Reiki Lineage Tracing System. Reiki Tradition School of Reiki continue the preservation and conservation of Reiki as it's intended in its original Eastern form and entirety.

The idea behind a Reiki Lineage Tracing System is to easily record all Masters in the Usui Shiki Ryoho System.

Once Masters are listed in the system it then becomes easy to search the name and produce a line back to Usui Mikao Sensei 1st Generation.

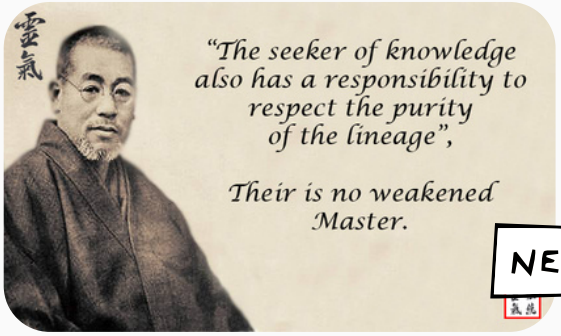
It took almost 6 years to develop the database and test for functionality. The system became live in 2022 and we now have over 10 thousand Master's listed on the system covering 8 specialities over 15 generations from both Western and Eastern.

There are only 2 Companies in the whole of the UK and Ireland offering such a tracing system; The UK Reiki Federation (UKRF) and Reiki Tradition School of Reiki.

The UKRF are specific to their own members with a cost of £25 per search.

Reiki Tradition School of Reiki is a FREE service to use, and we are not specific to our own students; our system is for anyone Worldwide.

It is fast becoming any Reiki Practitioner requiring membership to any organisation requires to hold a Reiki Lineage, this lineage should go back to Usui Mikao Sensei 1st Generation.



NEXT

2022 we saw Northern Ireland creating the start of 15th Generation Reiki Masters.

Reiki Tradition School of Reiki continuation of our Tracing System is to archive the system for public access on a 24/7 basis.

A Reiki Lineage is a (tree) listing all Past Masters; it has to be emphasised, only Master's are listed on a Lineage along with the year they became Master.

To know if your lineage is a viable Usui Reiki lineage under the Core Curriculum (CC) and National Occupational Standards (NOS) some guidelines are given and listed below.

Lineages that follow a Western teaching Strategy and understanding, will always have these master's at the beginning of the lineage:

1st Generation
Mikao Usui Sensei

2nd Generation
Chujiro Hayashi Sensei

3rd Generation
Hawayo Takata Sensei

All lineages from Mrs Hawayo Takata Sensei would include one of the following Masters as 4th Generation.

They were the 22 Masters taught by Hawayo Takata Sensei.

George Araki
Dorothy Baba
Ursula Baylow
Rick Bockner
Patricia Ewing
Barbara Brown
Fran Brown
Phyllis Furumoto
Beth Gray
John Gray
Iris Ishikuro
Harry Kuboi
Ethel Lombardi
Barbara McCullough
Mary McFayden
Paul Mitchell
Bethel Phaigh
Shinobu Saito
Virginia Samdahl
Wanja Twan
Barbara Weber Ray
Kay Yamashita

If your Reiki Master is in the Hawayo Takata Sensei lineage, and his/her Lineage does not include one of those names listed above, you should ask your Master for verification or contact me for assistance.

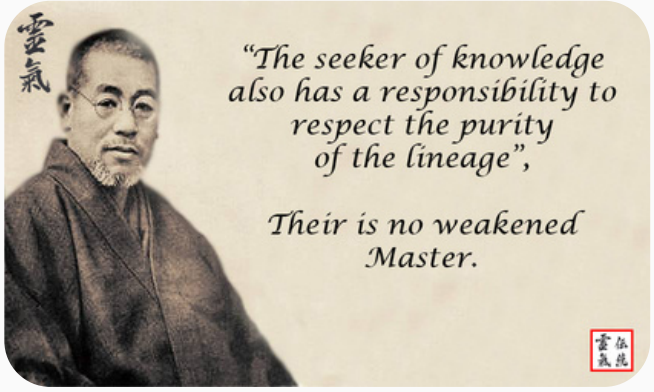
Reiki Tradition School of Reiki

An insight into our Preservation of our Lineage

Preserving Our Reiki Lineage a Living Heritage for Future Generations

Within Reiki Tradition, lineage is far more than a historical record — it is the living thread that connects every student to the origins of Reiki itself. It is our shared heritage, our professional foundation, and the anchor that ensures the integrity of our practice remains strong for generations to come.

At a time when many complementary therapies are modernising, adapting, and sometimes losing sight of their roots, Reiki Tradition has taken a different path: one of stewardship, conservation, and unwavering respect for the teachings passed down to us.



A Lineage Worth Protecting

Every practitioner who trains with Reiki Tradition becomes part of a lineage that stretches back to Mikao Usui. This connection is not symbolic — it is documented, traceable, and preserved with the same care and precision we apply to all aspects of our governance and accreditation work.

Lineage matters because it:

- Ensures the authenticity of the teachings we pass on
- Protects the integrity of the Reiki system
- Provides students with confidence in their training
- Upholds professional standards recognised by governing bodies
- Connects each practitioner to a wider community and history

For many students, seeing their lineage for the first time is a moment of profound realisation: I am part of something bigger, something enduring.

An insight into our Preservation of our Lineage

A Legacy for Future Students

Every new student who joins Reiki Tradition steps into a lineage that has been nurtured, protected, and honoured. Our conservation work ensures that future generations will inherit the same clarity, authenticity, and connection that our current students enjoy.

Lineage is not just a record of the past — it is a gift to the future.

By preserving it with such care, Reiki Tradition continues to "Stand Up for Standards" and uphold the values that define our school: integrity, transparency, professionalism, and respect for the origins of Reiki.

Together, We Keep the Lineage Alive

As our community grows, so too does the living lineage we share. Every attunement, every class, every practitioner who steps forward to learn becomes part of this ongoing story. Reiki Tradition remains committed to protecting that story — for you, for your students, and for all who will walk this path in years to come

There are also some Japanese lineages (e.g. those including either Hiroshi Doi Sensei or Chiyoko Yamaguchi Sensei) available that follow Japanese teachings.

If you are unsure about your lineage or have queries, please don't hesitate to contact me.

If you would like to contribute your lineage to our ever-expanding database, to help and preserve Reiki Lineages for generations to come, please use the Lineage Submission form found below.

Rose Oil
A traditional Anoitment Oil

Rose Oil

Rose Oil and Reiki Tradition School of Reiki.

Rose Oil has long held a special place within our Reiki Tradition and continues to be prepared and used today with the same care, respect, and intention that has been passed down through our Reiki lineage. The preparation of this oil is regarded as part of our living tradition, preserving practices that have been entrusted from teacher to teacher through successive generations. Within many spiritual and healing traditions, rose has been valued for its association with compassion, harmony, gentleness, and the heart. In our Reiki Tradition, the oil serves as a sacred symbol of healing, connection, and respect for the attunement process. Its preparation is undertaken with mindfulness and dedication, reflecting the values of authenticity, continuity, and lineage preservation that remain central to our teaching.

What Is an Anointing Oil?

An anointing oil is a specially prepared oil used in spiritual, religious, and healing traditions as part of a sacred ritual or ceremonial practice. Historically, anointing oils have been used to bless, consecrate, dedicate, or prepare an individual for a particular purpose. The act of anointing is not merely the application of oil itself, but a symbolic gesture representing spiritual intention, blessing, and connection.

In many traditions, the oil is applied to specific energy centres, the hands, or the forehead as part of a sacred ceremony. The practice serves as a tangible expression of a deeper spiritual process, helping to create a focused and respectful atmosphere.

How We Use Rose Oil

At Reiki Tradition School of Reiki, our Rose Oil is reserved solely for use within our Reiki practice. It is not sold as a cosmetic product, perfume, or general massage oil. Instead, it is used exclusively during:

- Reiki Healing Sessions
- Reiki Attunements
- Reiju (Spiritual Blessing and Empowerment Ceremonies)

NEXT

Rose Oil
A traditional Anoitment Oil

Rose Oil

The application of the oil forms part of the ceremonial aspect of these practices and helps create a sense of reverence and sacred space for both practitioner and recipient. Its use reflects the continuity of our lineage and honours the traditional methods that have been faithfully maintained through the generations.

By continuing to prepare and use this Rose Oil within our healing and attunement work, we maintain an important link with those teachers who came before us, ensuring that the essence of the tradition remains alive and unchanged for future generations.

"Through the simple act of anointing, we acknowledge the sacred nature of the healing journey and the unbroken lineage that continues to guide and inspire our practice today."

Our Blended Rose Oil is available to all students at only £8 per 10ml Bottle.

Reiki 3rd Degree

Master Teacher Course

CNHC
Complementary & Natural Healthcare Council

The Master Degree is taught either on a 1:1 basis or a small class group size of no more than 4 students. In this degree you receive another four Attunements. You are now given two more symbols; a Master Symbol and an Attunement Symbol. Some schools of Reiki split this degree into Reiki Advanced Degree and Reiki Teacher Degree, (ie. a 3rd and 4th Degree). However, we cover all aspects of the Master Degree in one intensive course.

Our 3rd Degree Master/Teacher Course is a combined course, its ideal for those who want to work within a higher 3rd degree level, and for practitioners who would like to teach. This initiation opens the doors to our hidden self and takes us up into the next stage of our evolution. It is for those students who wish to become whole, by owning and becoming responsible for all that they are. It is essential to wait a minimum of twelve months after the 2nd Degree before embarking upon the Master Degree. By this stage you should be fully conversant with the chakra system and spiritual issues. You must have also shown a commitment to the regular practice of Reiki and feel committed to passing your knowledge and experience onto others. The Master Degree is for those individuals who wish to teach Reiki. Becoming a Reiki Master requires commitment and dedication. Taking on Reiki Master ship has to be realised is a significant commitment. You will be passing on the 'Usui Reiki Tradition' and maintaining a commitment to the students for teaching and guiding them through their Reiki training. This commitment and guidance must continue long after they have taken their training with you. You must think hard before you embark upon this degree and make sure that you have the dedication required. It is important to understand that we are all continuously learning when we work with the energy of Reiki. We are all on a wonderful learning curve.

Upon completion of this Course on the Saturday evening Students will be presented with the Course Presentation Items.

We ask Students to return back to the Therapy Rooms after a Duration of 8 weeks after completion on the Saturday Evening. This is to attend a Special Presentation. At this presentation evening, students are presented with special Reiki Historic Gifts, Lineage items. This evening is a surprise evening, where students are presented with Special Memorabilia items. This evening is presented by Martin R Thirlwell Reiki Master, in recognition of new Master Students now joining the Usui Shiki Ryoho Lineage.

A peep inside Paula's work

Reiki Tradition School of Reiki

In 2015, Reiki Tradition was first introduced to Teesside Hospice following an initial email and subsequent telephone discussion, after which a meeting was arranged for me to attend the Hospice. I attended on 28 May 2015.
Detailed discussions were held regarding the current Core Curriculum and National Occupational Standards required for Reiki Practitioners to work safely and professionally within statutory healthcare settings.
The accredited training pathway that students must complete to achieve a recognised Reiki qualification was also discussed, ensuring they are suitably prepared to practise within these environments upon graduation. During the same meeting, it was agreed that we would provide training for two members of the Complementary Therapy Team.

Paula Cripps

Introducing Paula – Accredited Qualification Reiki Student
I would like to introduce Paula, a personal friend and dedicated Reiki practitioner.

Before we share Paula's story of her work at Teesside Hospice, it is important to acknowledge her journey with us at Reiki Tradition School of Reiki.

Paula first joined us on 11th October 2015 to begin her Reiki journey on our Accredited Qualification Pathway. She later returned on 9th May 2026 to undertake her Second Degree Reiki training as part of her continuing qualification pathway.

Since completing her First Degree, Paula has worked extremely hard to complete the majority of her case studies and observed practice sessions.

It will be a proud moment in early 2027 when Paula graduates as a Fully Accredited Reiki Student. Thank-you Paula.

We need More Students

Due to the expansion of the Teesside Hospice we are currently looking for Accredited Students to join us working single handedly as part of a much larger multidisciplinary team.

I need to emphasise these positions are only open to our Accredited Qualification Students.

Paula Cripps

The day and life of working Professional

My name is Paula Cripps,
and I would like to share my story with you.

Reiki is back by popular demand at Teesside Hospice. For many years, Reiki has been a well-received therapy that has been offered to patients, carers and staff by our volunteer Reiki practitioners.

When lockdown lifted, people's lives and priorities changed.

Sadly, our volunteer Reiki practitioners parted to follow other life commitments. This left a 2-year gap of where we couldn't offer our patients, carers and staff Reiki treatments.

I started to notice on my daily clinical handovers that took place within the inpatient unit and with the wellbeing team, Reiki kept being mentioned. Clinical staff were asking do we still offer Reiki as patients are asking for this, but with us not being trained in this, we couldn't offer it at that time.

It was plain to see that Reiki was needed again at Teesside Hospice.
This was when Janet Collins and I decide to look for accredited Reiki training courses.

After finding Martin at Reiki Tradition and after talking to him, we knew then that Martin was the right teacher for us.

Janet and I are now students, training for our Reiki 2. I am amazed how gentle the approach to Reiki treatment is and how effective it is in bringing homeostasis back to the body.

Reiki has and is still helping me on my own healing journey. My only regret is that I didn't do this sooner.
